Future member of the Pioneer Guard Drill Team

Dated: _____

The Pioneer Guard drillers are seen as leaders within the JROTC program and role models for all other cadets. All members must read, understand, and agree to adhere to these standards if they wish to be active on this team. As a member of the Pioneer Guard drill team, you are viewed as the best within the corps of cadets. At all times you are expected to set the example in appearance, discipline, integrity, knowledge, drill proficiency, and of course the Army values. In order to succeed there must be an understanding of what is right and what is wrong. Along with that comes consistency and hard work, especially when reaching for a national title (Daytona Beach, Florida).

This driller swears to uphold the principles of being on the Pioneer Guard Drill Team and understands that violations of these principles will result in dismissal from the team. This driller will perform all expected duties and conduct team related matters with responsibilities and pride. We are one team and will act as such.

4. I will wear the designated Pioneer Guard uniform on days when it is established (practices, drill meets, etc.)
5. I will be responsible for all equipment designated to me.
6. I will work my hardest every day at practice and approach new things with an open mind.
7. I will show up to practice with a good attitude and on time every morning (0545 – 0700), in my black shorts, black shirt and drill shoes.

Suspension/Removal from the team will be taken into effect if the following occurs:

1. Disrespecting teammates, on or off the drill floor.
2. 10 + missed practices (does not include excused absences)
3. Engaging in illegal activities.
4. Other special circumstances that may arise will be dealt with accordingly.

Unnecessary information/responses will be kept out of the group chat. Social media posts/usage is to remain positive and encouraging at all times. There will be a no-gossiping tolerance on this team. Engaging in drama is a choice, don't be a part of it.
